Customer Reviews

Love the mysteries of the first three books, bought the whole series. I'm addicted to Emma Watts mystery(Witches of Crystal Cove.)The first two, I kinda knew who did it towards the end. Book three murder Most foul, kept me guessing and surprised me at who dun it! Love mysteries and paranormal mixed together, couldn't put Down! On to book four, hum, wonder what she's cooked up now? Lots of love to you Emma for your great mind and Mysteries! ^‡ ^‡ ^‡

This book had a lot less charm and cozy to it compared to the three before it. It takes place in the big city, but that did not feel real. The main characters at one point deals with a drunken pass from a blood relative as if it was nothing, and I found that more than a little disturbing. The police and secondary characters simply are too shallow. I do not know how much further I will read in this series.

In this one, Jane must leave the island. Her aunt dies. Is it suicide or murder? The police seem satisfied that it's suicide. But is it? Only Jane with her sisters, Agatha and Lizzy, can chase down the truth. More twists and turns with this one.

Emma Watts delivers another stunning tale of Jane and her witchy family. Crystal Cove is full of witches but no one knows. When Jane's aunt dies suddenly, it's off to the funeral they go. Who knew witches solved murders better than New York police detectives? I did.

I would recommend these stories to anyone who enjoys reading. I like to sit with these stories with a cup of my favorite teas and biscuits and these.

I gave this book 5 stars because it was easy to read and hard to put down. I would recommend this book to anyone who likes whodunit type books

It's ok reading but each book follows exactly the same formula so it's not as interesting as they could be. Still I liked reading the series.

Awesome book! Ms Watts makes Crystal Cove come to life! Jane, Agatha and Lizzy are great women. Can't wait to read the next installment
