Customer Reviews

Alaina is kidnapped by aliens and sold as a slave. The surroundings are like those of old Roman times and disputes among the classes or races are settled in the Arena by having their warriors fight against once another. Alaina is bought as a gift slave, a donora. She will be given to the winner amongst her new owners warriors. She is so totally in shock over this whole situation, never in her life would she thought this was possible! She is a survivor though, she has had to be. Vega is the top warrior and close to winning enough to be set free. That is all he wants, to go back home to his planet. When he and Alaina see one another, their attraction is like a lightning strike for both of them. He is annoyed because he doesn't need the distraction that she seems to be bringing out in all the other warriors. Alaina discloses that she is a healer and is told to help the injured warriors during the fights. Her interactions with Vega will change both their lives....for they have saved one another lives several times now. Now they have to trust one another in order to survive. I have to admit, "aliens" is a new concept for me. The story sounded great though so I took a chance. Alaina and Vega are one awesome couple together! You can't help but love them. Aliana has a tendency to say what she thinks, which isn't wise for a captive and a slave. Vega is determined to get back home and doesn't need the disruption of his feelings for her. Before I knew it, I was all in with this couple. Vega held himself away from people and I understood that since he was in competition to live much less win his freedom. He had people who truly liked him. These people would prove that also.
